Canyon and Notus-Parma Highway Districts have acted as the lead agencies on the study. Many of these parties participated in the Bowmont Road study performed by Nampa Highway District, which forms the southern terminus for this study.

Over the past six months, this committee met to review and comment on the study process and preliminary selection criteria, to identify alternatives for consideration, and finally to perform a preliminary screening of the alternatives. The results of these meetings are displayed on the Preliminary Alternative Scoring Map, which shows how various alternatives ranked compared to each other. These preliminary rankings were generated by evaluating the relative impact of each alternative on the various Decision Criteria categories.
